Conditions for Leaflet Use and Distribution

These leaflets are to be provided to Member's customers when the relevant equipment, plant or tools are hired out. The Hirer MUST further provide to the customer the Additional Information Leaflet (AIL1) which provides supplementary health and safety information and conditions of use for each safety instruction leaflet.

Purchasers of CPA Safety Instruction Leaflets are licensed to print and reproduce the contents for the purpose of provision of printed safety instructions to customers in the United Kingdom in a hire transaction. The contents of each leaflet must not be lent, hired, sold or distributed in any other way. No other licence or rights to the contents are granted or implied.

The request for the safety instruction leaflets made by the CPA Member constitutes an agreement for the requester to abide by the conditions set by the Construction Plant-hire Association in the provision and use of these leaflets, as described in this order form and the 'Notes for Leaflet Use' contained within the Additional Information leaflet.
